

The College of Education at the University of Saskatchewan invites applications from qualified individuals for a full time; 3-year term position at the Assistant or Associate Professor rank in the Department of Educational Administration.

The University of Saskatchewan's main campus is situated on Treaty 6 Territory and the Homeland of the Métis. The University of Saskatchewan is located in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, a city with a diverse and thriving economic base, a vibrant arts community and a full range of leisure opportunities. The University has a reputation for excellence in teaching, research and scholarly activities and offers a full range of undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs to a student population of over 24,000.

The Department of Educational Administration is a thriving department with a responsibility for undergraduate and graduate programs. The Department has recently initiated a process of curriculum and instructional renewal including innovative new programming at the master's and doctoral level. The Department maintains long-established partnerships with community agencies and cross-campus departments.

The Department of Educational Administration has one of the largest cohorts of graduate students at the University of Saskatchewan. We deliver Master's and PhD programs that focus on educational administration in the following contexts:

- Pre-K-12 educational systems;
- Indigenous educational jurisdictions;
- Post-secondary institutions;
- Health professions education;
- Public and social sectors; and
- International education systems.

The Department offers undergraduate and graduate programming in the areas of:

- Educational policy, governance, finance, ethics, and law;
- Educational research methods;
- Educational system improvement, organizational development, and effectiveness;
- Leadership for the enhancement of teaching and learning;
- Leadership in rural education; and
- International and comparative education studies.

Research and community engagement opportunities within the Department and College include those facilitated through the Saskatchewan Educational Leadership Unit (SELU) and the editorial office of the Canadian Journal of Educational Administration and Policy (CJEAP).

Qualifications

We are seeking candidates that have an earned doctoral degree in educational administration, educational leadership, or equivalent. Preference will be given to those who have successful field experience (e.g. teaching and administration in Pre-K-12 or Post-secondary environments), a strong program of research, evidence of external funding or potential to acquire external funding, ability to supervise Master's and PhD students, and interest in working with Indigenous and international communities.

Salary bands for this position are as follows:

Assistant Professor: $93,293 to $112,109; and Associate Professor: $112,109 to $130,925.

This position includes a comprehensive benefits package which includes a dental, health and extended vision care plan; pension plan, life insurance (compulsory and voluntary), academic long term disability, sick leave, travel insurance, death benefits, an employee assistance program, a professional expense allowance, and a flexible health and wellness spending program.

Interested candidates must submit, via email, a cover letter; detailed curriculum vitae; and any supporting documents to:

Dr. Paul Newton, Department Head
3081 College of Education
28 Campus Drive
University of Saskatchewan
Saskatoon, SK S7N 0X1
Telephone: (306) 966-7619
Email: jennifer.kovar@usask.ca

Review of applications will begin six weeks from the date of posting; however, applications will be accepted and evaluated until the position is filled. The anticipated start date is July 1, 2018.

The University of Saskatchewan is strongly committed to a diverse and inclusive workplace that empowers all employees to reach their full potential. All members of the university community share a responsibility for developing and maintaining an environment in which differences are valued and inclusiveness is practiced. The university welcomes applications from those who will contribute to the diversity of our community. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.