

Report of the 2012 T. B. Greenfield Adjudication Committee

At the close of submissions February 2012, there were 6 completed digital submissions that included: the 2500-3000 word article, a supporting letter from each candidate's supervisor(s), and each candidate's full dissertation. Submissions drew from doctoral scholarship across Canada.

This year's winner is Dr. Kelly Gallagher-McKay. Her doctoral supervisor is Dr. Jane Gaskell (OISE/UT). The adjudication committee included members from all regions of Canada as well. In alphabetical order these colleagues were: Drs. Claire Isabelle, (U d'Ottawa), James Ryan (OISE/UT), and Bruce Sheppard (Memorial University).

After the committee made its decision, I contacted our President, Dr. Dawn Wallin. I also contacted the winner and her supervisor. May 10, I sent out to the supervisors and 5 other candidates a letter. This year's letters for the successful candidate and the 5 others were modeled on letters developed by Dr. Dawn Wallin when she was the Greenfield Chair.

As chair of the 2012 T. B. Greenfield Adjudication Committee, I would like to commend the dedication of our colleagues who sat on this year's committee. I would also like to thank Dr. Dawn Wallin for her guidance and advice around process. Merci beaucoup tout le monde.

Sincerely,

Rosemary Foster
