

Graduate Student Representative
Report to the CASEA Annual General Meeting, June 23, 2020
Western University, London, ON

The role of the student representative on the CASEA Executive is to plan and organize a session at the CASEA conference specifically for graduate students. This year, I had organized a presentation for the 2020 annual conference at Western University in London, Ontario and the topic of the session was finding suitable topics for dissertation research. The details of the session are as follow:

Title: Exploring Suitable Topics for Dissertation Research.

Description: This session was designed for graduate students to explore areas of interest about research topics that could translate to meaningful research for them. Graduate students will have an opportunity to ask questions about the research process including the ideation process, the potential research questions, and the selection of suitable topics. The session seeks to help graduate students find relatable, relevant, and meaningful dissertation topics that speak to who they are personally.

However, the conference was cancelled due to the COVID-19 pandemic that continues to affect the world.

Thank you for the opportunity to represent students in this great association. I really appreciate the people that I met during my tenure as the graduate student representative. I look forward to my continued involvement with CASEA.
