Language Arts and Literacy Coordinator

Make a difference in this rewarding career opportunity

Salary $67,418.93 - $77,019.79 annually

The Education Programs Division plays a central role in maintaining curriculum, classroom assessment, reporting and the ongoing large-scale assessment programs, as well as facilitating the transformation of BC's K-12 education system to support student success.

The Language Arts and Literacy Coordinator plays a key role in the design, implementation and maintenance of Language Arts curriculum and the development of literacy-based assessments. This role encompasses leading project teams of professional staff (i.e. education officers, contracted educational specialists, and school district staff); providing advice to school districts and educators on policies and issues related to curriculum and assessment development; and researching and coordinating responses to emerging curriculum and assessment issues and priorities.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Bachelor's degree in education or a related field. Graduate degree in a related field may be preferred.
- Eligibility for membership in the BC College of Teachers and/or graduate work in an education related field may be preferred.
- Minimum of 3 years of recent experience teaching Language Arts in the K–12 education system, or equivalent experience working with teachers/educators.
- Experience with developing and/or implementing Language Arts curriculum.
- Experience with large-scale test construction and/or assessment design.
- Experience designing and implementing Kindergarten to Grade 12 provincial curriculum standards and classroom assessment.
- Experience conducting research, analysing findings and presenting recommendations to stakeholders and senior management.
- Experience in managing, planning, organizing and supervising complex large-scale projects.
- Experience working on developing content for project-related service contracts to achieve business goals.
- Experience selecting, managing and leading professional teams comprised of educational stakeholders.
