

Where ideas work

Ministry of Education
Victoria, BC

Director, Indigenous Education
$92,700.24 – $123,200.20 annually

An excellent opportunity to apply your analytical expertise

The Learning Division, within the Ministry of Education, is responsible for providing leadership and support to school districts in the areas of Indigenous Education, Inclusive Education, Early Learning, French Programs, Student Wellness and Safety, Student Hunger, Anti-Racism, Strategic Priorities and Mental Health in Schools. Through a focus on personalized learning, the Learning Division promotes choice and flexibility, student engagement, and strong basic skills and competencies. Located within the Learning Division, within the Ministry of Education, the Indigenous Education Branch, develops, coordinates, and implements a range of policies, strategies, programs, and agreements related to Indigenous Education to enable the K-12 system to improve the school success of Indigenous students.

This position assumes a leadership role in developing and maintaining key relations within the BC government, federal and provincial government officials, and a diverse range of senior leaders in school districts and Indigenous organizations to ensure the goals of government are achieved. You are highly service oriented with excellent oral and interpersonal communication skills and the ability to develop creative solutions for issues. The nature of the work is diverse and complex and requires critical thinking, sound analysis, expeditious decision-making, and the balancing of competing priorities. If you are looking for an exciting leadership opportunity and possess the required qualifications, we look forward to your application.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Post-secondary degree in education, public administration, or a related field; OR an equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered.
- Minimum three (3) years or more of experience in leadership roles in a professional service or stakeholder management environment.
- Minimum three (3) years or more of experience establishing collaborative relationships with senior leaders within an organization, government, or within Indigenous communities.
- Minimum three (3) years or more of experience leading organizational change.
- Experience leading and coaching multi-disciplinary teams in the development and implementation of a diverse range of projects.

For more information and to apply online by January 6, 2022, please go to:

<https://bcpublicservice.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/81516>